

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

C.A. No. 20–55181

Adam Bereki,
Plaintiff–Appellant,

v.

Karen and Gary Humphreys,
Defendants–Appellees.

STATEMENT THAT APPEAL SHOULD GO FORWARD

Appeal from the Judgment of the United States District Court
For the Central District of California

Case No. 8:19–CV–02050

In Propria Persona

Please consider the statements I made in the Motion I filed on 3/20/20 (Dkt. 3) to proceed in forma pauperis and for this Court to appoint counsel, along with the First Amended Verified Complaint and entire record I submitted to the District Court in case number 8:19–CV–02050 (Bereki v. Humphreys) as the reasons I believe this appeal should go forward. Furthermore, the District Court had no subject matter jurisdiction to declare this appeal frivolous and without merit because I was never given a lawful hearing commensurate with the assistance of counsel and the many other constitutional safeguards mentioned in my aforementioned Motion, Verified Complaint, and other Declarations submitted to the District Court's record. I also believe I was entitled to counsel to prepare this statement. However, this Court never ruled on my Motion.

I ask this Court to appoint counsel, approve my request to proceed in forma pauperis, and allow this appeal to go forward as Constitutionally required.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Adam Bereki', with a large, stylized loop at the end.
